Affordable Housing Fellowship Program

How to Apply:
Submit a resume and cover letter (max 2 pages) with two references by August 2nd, 2023, to: HR@alamedahsg.org. Include in the subject line: Fellowship Employment Application.

What is the Program?
This is a 10–12 month fellowship starting early October 2023, for those looking to start a career in affordable housing. Fellows will work on a range of affordable housing related projects.

This position is temporary, full-time, at-will and non-exempt, and requires in-office work. The position provides every other Friday off. Some benefits are provided. The rate of pay is $39.29 per hour.

While there is no guarantee of a permanent position at the end of the fellowship, the fellows are encouraged to apply to open positions within the agency and will receive professional development advice and networking opportunities.

With Opportunities in:
- Affordable Housing Development
- Affordable Housing Policy/Data Management
- Accounting and Finance

Who can Apply?
Candidates with a demonstrated interest in and some early career experience in affordable housing (including as an intern or volunteer) may apply. An undergraduate degree is required. Equivalent work experience in place of a degree may be considered. Preference may be given to prior Housing Authority of the City of Alameda interns.