

CONSTRUCTION PROJECT MANAGER

SALARY RANGE 36: $119,304 - $145,020 annually

Final Filing Date: Open until filled. First review of applications on May 30, 2024 at 5:00 p.m. PST. AHA reserves the right to interview candidates before the deadline.

THE ORGANIZATION

The Housing Authority of the City of Alameda (AHA) is proud of its mission and accomplishments. In partnership with the entire community, AHA advocates and provides quality, affordable safe housing, encourages self-sufficiency, and strengthens community inclusiveness and diversity in housing.

THE POSITION

AHA is seeking an exceptional, team-oriented candidate to work at the Construction Project Manager level, depending on qualifications. The candidate hired to either position will work on a wide range of analytical, management, and technical assignments supporting the AHA Housing Development and Property Operations Departments, including rehabilitation of occupied properties, re-use and updating of Authority facilities, and administration of financing/funding for projects.

The Construction Project Manager will organize and oversee day-to-day planning, design and implementation of development projects, and assist in short- and long-term planning, development, and administration, with particular emphasis on the needs, requirements, and regulations of affordable housing and public finance. This position requires the ability to communicate and work effectively with a wide variety of internal and external partners, work on project teams, and receive work direction.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Any combination of training and experience that would provide the required knowledge, skills, and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain the required qualifications would be:

- Education: Equivalent to graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major coursework in business administration, public administration, or a related field, and
- Experience:
 - Three (3) years of relevant experience in construction project management or multifamily property management with a strong emphasis on renovation/major maintenance.
- Experience in contract management and procurement of construction services is required.
- Experience in an affordable housing and public procurement setting is a plus.
- Possession of, or ability to obtain, a valid driver's license by time of appointment is required.
- Must be able to be insured under AHA's owned automobile insurance policy.

BENEFITS PACKAGE

The Housing Authority provides an outstanding benefits package, including:

- Membership in CalPERS defined benefit retirement program, plus voluntary 457, 457 Roth, and Roth IRA plans (no employer contribution). Important: AHA does not participate in Social Security.
- A variety of health insurance plans to choose from, with some plans fully paid for (regardless of the number of dependents) by employer contributions.
- 2 weeks of vacation to start; 11 holidays; and 3.5 floating holidays per year plus paid sick leave.
- A flex schedule of 9 8-hour workdays each pay period with every other Friday generally not scheduled as a workday. Exempt employees, however, are measured on outcomes and are expected to complete work assignments irrespective of the flex schedule.
- Note that the Senior Construction Project Manager or Construction Project Manager work on-site; telecommuting is not generally offered. These positions require 3-4 days per week in the office.
