

HOUSING WAIT LIST APPLICATION CENTERS

The Housing Authority of the City of Alameda is opening an online housing wait list application for the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program and select Project-Based Voucher (PBV) programs. The housing wait list application period will be from open starting on Tuesday, December 3rd at 12pm through Monday, December 16th at 12pm. Once the application period starts, interested individuals and families can apply online via this link: <https://recertification.alamedahsg.org/>

The application center locations listed below will be staffed by Housing Authority employees to assist applicants with the housing Wait List application. Housing Authority staff will provide access to computers for applicants to complete the online housing wait list application.

AHA staff will be at the application center locations during the hours listed below between the following dates, December 3rd through December 16th.
